FOR REPRESENTATIVES.
We are authorized to announce W. W. Clegg, Representative for the Legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Kentucky House passed the bill allowing Police Judges and Magistrates only $2 a day for holding examinations trials, no matter how many he may be held in one day.

A VARIETY actress has received $80,000 from a Chicago Hotel proprietor for being shut up in a folding bed. Henceforth every soubrette in the country will insist on sleeping in folding beds excepting myself.

Editor Watson attributes the success of the Democrats in the Chinese platform. Will kind friends please tell us the astyms risks ready? There is work to do, and ready hands should be found to do the work.

GROUNDS. Political continuities were kept up every few days. One in Illinois Tuesday, another in Iowa Friday. If some one does not hold the General up he may be in our State soon.

As Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, leader for the Whigs last week, after having been ousted from office by his political enemies, he is said to have sung in melancholy tones:

"Lay down and die and be done."
Hans, Hans, Hans!
For po' old Hunter has got to run.
For de place where you are—
—cynical Poem.

Mr. CLEVELAND's truth that "the party placed in power as a result of splendid Democratic partisans has failed to live up to its name and to the people's trust," is hardly worthy of him, says the Standard Journal: If an old bird like himself was elected with such a load of political sins upon his shoulders, what would he say? "Splendid Democratic partisanship!" the devil! The "splendid Democrat" deserves what they got, but not a pifey bit of the rest of us have suffered.

SAYING SO. Below comes a letter from the fact that the republicans could not agree upon one of their strongest men and in a fit of desperation compromised upon a weak man in order to prevent what little harmony there was left in the party's ranks. He will live in history as the first republican to break into a long line of sectionalists. Keenly aware of the damage which recently to democratic principles during the last two years can secure a satisfaction at the sight of a man like Doolittle, who has been once popular by a Clew or a Blackwell, they are entitled to it. It is about all the reward they will ever receive for their treachery.

The Advocate says that the sound mass of Democrats of Boyle will fight with the Republicans. Of course they will. A wise Democrat who has tried to run third and couldn't have succeeded, as we were compelled to witness with his mother-in-law, if he thought he could accomplish the defeat of the party that wouldn't know him, will now be compelled to eases out to it a wise Democrat helps the party to bring it down.

In response to his paper again, Mr. McWheat, of McAllen, writes: I love a thoroughbred. I love a paper like the Independent Journal. If it came into my way every day politically, it always falls in line with the majority of the Democratic party and never bolts out.

The Advocate says that the sound mass of Democrats of Boyle will fight with the Republicans. Of course they will. A wise Democrat who has tried to run third and couldn't have succeeded, as we were compelled to witness with his mother-in-law, if he thought he could accomplish the defeat of the party that wouldn't know him, will now be compelled to ease out to it a wise Democrat helps the party to bring it down.

The senatorial contest between Mr. Bennett and Mr. Clegg is to be decided in the fall. That is a question that is perhaps hard to answer. It seems however that he who has the most money and influence will win.
